

WAKE'S RADICAL BOSS.

It has been asked "why is it that the STATE CHRONICLE wages a hotter warfare upon CHAS. D. URCHURCH than upon other Radical candidates? Is he not as good as some of the others? Should not all stand or fall together?"

This is a very proper inquiry, and one very easy to answer. The CHRONICLE's politics is to fight a Radical whenever there is necessity for it. Whether he is big or little, rich or poor, black or white he is the enemy of good government in North Carolina, and the CHRONICLE opposes his election to any position of trust or honor. We never have regard to the MAN. We always have regard to the party, whose credentials he bears. If he is a "clever fellow" we say let him show his cleverness by leaving the Radical party. That is the only way he can show it.

The CHRONICLE does not wage a hotter warfare upon URCHURCH than upon his associates HOOPER colored, and PURNELL (white) because he is worse than they are. He is no worse and no better. He is an enemy to white supremacy; so are they. He is doing all he can to degrade the South for personal aggrandizement; so are they. He is lending all the influence he has to foist unjust sectional legislation upon us; so are they. If we seem to oppose him more than the others, it is because he is capable of and does do more to debauch politics; and prevent white supremacy than any of them. PURNELL and HOOPER are mere figure heads, and are dependent upon him for their election. If he were to withdraw his money and his work from the campaign, neither of them would get fifty white votes in the county. The same is true of Anglo and Melver and the other Radical candidates who depend upon Wake's vote for support.

Whenever URCHURCH runs and succeeds, he elects the whole Radical ticket, negroes and all. There are a few white men who support him who do not swallow the whole Radical dose. But they are few. Many of the so-called Democrats whom he induces to vote for him vote the whole Radical ticket—swallow the whole nauseating dose. When a man gets to scratching his ticket for one Radical, the step is very short to scratching others, and then to voting the straight Radical ticket. In a few instances, it is the exception. But ninety-nine times out of a hundred he goes over, body and soul, to the Radical camp.

When a young man commits the first sin, the road to ruin is down an inclined plane, and the descent is very easy. It is the same way with the road towards Radicalism when a man begins to scratch. URCHURCH's complete Bossism of the Radical party in Wake county did not begin until 1882. In that year the county gave a largely increased Radical majority not only for URCHURCH but for all Radical nominees. In fact URCHURCH's own vote was lower than any Radical candidate for a county office with one exception. But his work secured Radical majorities for all the rest. Although two years before, when URCHURCH was not a candidate, GEN. COX was beaten for Congress in Wake only ninety-five votes, in that year T. P. DEVEREUX, the Radical candidate for Congress, carried Wake county by 355, and THOS. R. PURNELL (Radical) was elected to the State Senate by about 200 majority.

In 1884—the tidal wave of Democratic success—when URCHURCH was not on the Radical ticket, GEN. COX had a majority of 734 for Congress; GATLING of 770 for the Senate; A. D. (BUCK) JONES 463 for County Treasurer; and PAGE 723 for Sheriff.

At the next election in 1886 URCHURCH was a candidate, and all the Radical ticket was elected. There was dissatisfaction over local legislation which affected the result, but this would not have made the Radical majority so large as it was but for URCHURCH's candidacy and "buddle." In 1888 when URCHURCH was not a candidate the Radical majority of 1886 was cut down to less than four hundred, and one Democratic candidate was elected. Instead of giving the Radical candidate for Congress 1,400 majority, it was reduced to 600, and the Radical county ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 400 down.

These are some facts that show that URCHURCH is the life of the Radical party in Wake county, and that he uses his influence and buddle for the Radical ticket, county, district and State. It would be bad enough if his money and effort simply made Wake a Radical county, but it is more far-reaching and gives increased Radical majorities to all others on the Radical ticket.

Why is he the political Boss of Wake county Radicalism and why has he been so influential? The question is easily answered. It is because his double dealing has never been exposed and Democrats have not shown up his Radicalism. "We have allowed him to play the DR. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde role and successfully deceive the people. He has talked to Democrats as if he were as good a Democrat as anybody, and boasted of his independence of party and has made some men believe that he was not a dyed-in-the-wool Radical. By this means he has secured votes from some white men who for other offices voted for the Democratic nominees. To the negroes he has been a Radical of Radicals and they know and feel that his success is their success. In every Radical convention he is the unanimous choice. In the last County Convention he was placed in nomination by a negro delegate from Holly Springs, and unanimously nominated in accordance with the "cut and dried" programme. They "whooped" up for him. Why? Would the Radicals of Wake county heartily support him, him if he did not help the rest of the ticket? Not a bit of it. They follow him, support him, and allow him to control them because they know he is doing more to secure Radical rule in county, State and nation than any Radical in Wake county. That is the reason why all the Radical papers in North Carolina give him high praise and endorsement.

The CHRONICLE knows, in view of these facts, that no Democrat can longer be deceived. It is not a purely local office, but URCHURCH's election is a triumph every time for Radicalism all along the lines. He elected HOOPER (col.) four years ago, and is doing all he can to re-elect him again. A vote for him, therefore, is a vote for the Radical Boss of Wake county. The man who votes for him this year, in view of the above facts, deliberately votes to foist a continuance of Radical rule upon the people of Wake county, and deliberately votes in favor of increasing the Radical majority against Chief Justice MERRITT, Justice CLARK, Judge WHITTAKER and the other Judges; against Hon. B. H. BURN, and against the gallant, sober and rising young Democratic candidate for Solicitor, E. W. POU, Jr., and against all the Democratic county and legislative ticket. There is no escape from this conclusion, therefore no man who claims to be a Democrat will vote for URCHURCH.

Don't postpone it, but go and register to-day.

Bring on Your Gourds!

A few days ago the following item appeared in the CHRONICLE: "Mr. John Cousins, of Little River township, Wake county, has a gourd vine which has fifty natural gourd vines on it. If anybody can beat this, let him trot out his gourd vine."

Mr. Alexander Stronach's eyes fell upon this paragraph, and it made him chuckle. He has a gourd vine at his home which has just about taken possession of the premises. Mr. Stronach says it covers a whole quarter of an acre, and if the frost will just give that vine a chance, he will bet "big" on the covering of the whole half an acre of ground before it stops. When he saw that Mr. Cousins had fifty gourds on one vine, he thought he would take a "day off," go to his vine, and count the gourds, and just simply settle the question of gourd-growing supremacy. He went—and he counted gourds on one vine for about an hour, during which time he found more than a hundred. Then his back got tired and he knocked off work to finish the job some other time.

"Tell 'em," says Mr. Stronach, "to come on with their gourds—soap gourds, grease gourds, water gourds, bee-martin gourds, and all sort of gourds, and I'll meet 'em. If any man shows at the fair more gourds from one vine than I do, I'll give five dollars to the Soldiers' Home. If I show the most gourds, let him give the five dollars for the same purpose."

Death of Mr. W. T. Heflin.

Mr. Heflin was in the railroad business in Georgia and enjoyed a prominent position in social and business circles. The announcement of his death was a sudden and grievous surprise to his father, Capt. Heflin, who had not been advised of his son's sickness.

Another dental office will be opened in Raleigh this week.

Twenty-five cadets passed through the city yesterday en route for the Davis Military school at Winston.

Raleigh people do not seem to be waking up to the fact that it is only two weeks to the fair. How about that trades procession? Let everybody get lively about this.

Officer Jones of the police force has found a bunch of keys to which is attached the left hind foot of a grave yard rabbit. The owner may have the whole outfit by calling for it.

There is considerable solicitude and anxiety as to the whereabouts of one of the students of Wake Forest College. He left the college some days ago, and nothing has been heard of him since.

Raleigh's cotton receipts have exceeded Atlanta's receipts this season by several thousand bales. Nothing keeps Raleigh from evermore spreading out and growing but a little lack of enterprise and united and concentrated vim.

To night the Odd Fellows of the city will give a grand banquet in the Yarbrough House, complimentary to C. M. Busbee, of Raleigh, the newly elected Grand Sire of the great I. O. O. F. There will be covers for two hundred and fifty guests.

The banquet to be given at the Yarbrough House to-night in honor of the election of Grand Sire of the kind ever given in this city, and all those who attend may expect a good time. We understand the doors will open promptly at 9:30.

A prominent Allianceman from Little River township was in town yesterday, and being asked how Meacham would run in that township, replied: "We Alliancemen in Little River would prefer to vote for Hoover." That is the sentiment of not a few Alliancemen with regard to the renegade.

There was a mighty hustling among the wood and coal men and the stove and grate men yesterday. They were overrun with orders from people who got their orders filled on ten minutes notice or less, and the deluge of orders almost ran the coal and grate men into the lunatic asylum.

Mr. C. S. Brimley returned yesterday from a trip to Western Alabama and the Gulf coast, where he has been collecting natural history specimens for the United States Department of Agriculture. He reports securing a number of interesting creatures, including several kinds of rattlesnakes, the very dangerous cotton mouth, moccasins and many rare birds and reptiles. He also raked in a polecat, an interesting creature that gets its name from the fact that the only safe way to handle it is with a forty-foot pole—longer if possible. There are no lies on the polecat—for obvious reasons. Mr. Brimley reports that the crops around Raleigh are equal to anything he saw either in Alabama or Mississippi.

COURT ADJOURNED.

The Serious Illness of Judge Boykin Prevents the Continuance of the term.

On Friday last Judge E. T. Boykin, who was presiding at Wake county Superior Court, was forced by illness to leave the bench as he then hoped for only a day or two. He accordingly adjourned the court until the following Monday, hoping to be able at that time to take his place on the bench again. It was the time set for the important trial of Off. W. E. Hogue in which great interest is shown, and a special venire of one hundred men had been summoned from which to make up a jury for this case.

But on yesterday morning there appeared to be no abatement in the severity of Judge Boykin's illness, and he was absolutely ordered by his physicians to give up all thought of taking the bench again for some days.

Accordingly Judge Boykin adjourned the court sine die, all the witnesses and summoned jurors being discharged.

The criminal court of this county will not meet again until December next, unless prevalent circumstances shall cause the Governor to appoint a special term.
